About Company

While our company, MMG Defense Industry, was serving in the field of defense industry by Hüseyin ACAR, it established AFTRASEC Company to address the Ecowas region in Nigeria in accordance with the World conjecture.

AFTRASEC LIMITED*, operating in Nigeria, was established in 2023 as an international company specializing in the defense industry, oil trade and general trade. It became a joint stock company in 2025.

. Our mission is to meet our customers' needs and gain competitive advantage in the global market by providing security solutions and strategic business services. Equipped with advanced technologies, our product range meets modern military requirements. We strengthen our place in the sector with defense vehicles and systems, high quality ammunition and security equipment.

In the field of oil trading, Afrasec Limited establishes strategic partnerships and agreements, providing access to energy resources around the world. In line with the goals of energy security, economic stability and sustainability, we play an active role in the supply of both raw materials and processed products. Thanks to our innovative business models and wide distribution network, we offer our customers high-quality petroleum products at the most affordable prices.

In the field of general trade, we develop solutions suitable for the dynamics of international trade by collaborating with companies in various sectors. The consultancy services we provide in import and export processes help our customers to be more effective in matters such as market research, logistics and customs procedures. As Afrasec limited, we aim to be a reliable trading partner all over the world.
